

PHIL WALLER

Phil Waller started his public accounting career with Haskins & Sells in their Los Angeles office in 1973. He spent two years with the firm primarily in the tax and small business departments. In 1975, he joined the firm of Thomas, Byrne & Smith in Riverside, CA working primarily on audits of municipalities and special districts. Phil joined Rogers, Anderson, Malody, and Scott. LLP in the latter 1970's, left to start his own firm, and then came returned to the firm in the early 1990's to become a partner.

Phil has many years of experience providing auditing, consulting, litigation support, and tax services to businesses, governmental agencies, health care, real estate developers and contractors, wholesalers, manufacturers, and service industries. His diverse background enables him to provide practical guidance and sound recommendations to businesses.

Phil holds a Bachelor of Science from California State Polytechnic University, Pomona, and he is a Certified Public Accountant in the State of California.

His professional associations include membership in the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and in the California Society of CPAs.

Phil and his wife, Maggie, reside in Upland. His personal interests include his family and grandchildren, fishing, golfing, and other recreational activities.

<http://www.ramscpa.net>